

This Hotel for Working Girls Is a Real Home, Without Humiliating "Rules" or "Charity" Features

Patrons Pay Their Way and Have All the Freedom Enjoyed by Members of Large Family—Every Comfort Provided as Result of a Pastor's Efforts.

"Lights Out at 11 O'Clock" About the Only Rule in Place—Masculine Callers Encouraged—Pretty Parlors Provided for Reception—Story of the Building.

By Rose Tillotson.

The eternal question of the working girl—how to live comfortably on a small salary—has been delightfully solved by the opening of the Elmire York-Tyndall Hotel, at No. 38 East One Hundred and Second street.

There are other hotels for women, but this is the only one founded by a church and designed and built by a preacher with his own hands. Its purpose is to furnish board and lodging at cost. It is thus far the only experiment of its kind in New York.

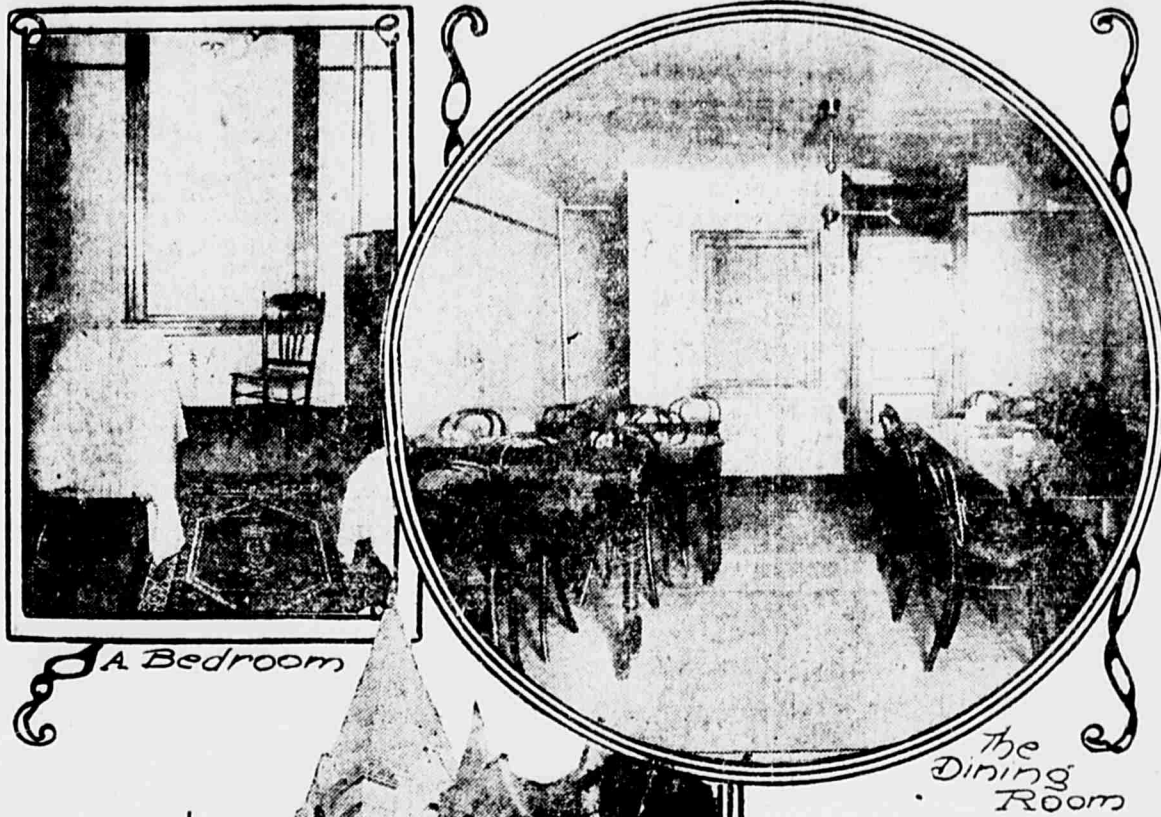

And this hotel for self-supporting young women, which will delight feminine workers struggling to eke out a respectable existence on a few dollars a week, is a monument to the energy and genius of the Rev. H. M. Tyndall, pastor of the People's Tabernacle, an interdenominational church next door. The minister drew the plans. The materials were such as others had "left over." The structure is of concrete, and for which was contributed by contractors building in the neighborhood. The skilled labor, such as excavating, plumbing and carpentering, was done by the Rev. Mr. Tyndall and his brother. The front is of brick and granite, to harmonize with the Tabernacle next door. The building was built as funds came in. When they were exhausted work stopped. A lot 26,330 feet had been donated. The work of building was necessarily slow, as there were only two workmen on the job. Once the city advertised the land to be sold for taxes, but the Rev. Mr. Tyndall filed his plans and his declaration made it exempt from taxation.

Is Really a Home.

The People's Tabernacle is not a large church, and is only twelve years old. So much for this new hotel and its staff and completion. The main thing, now, is that no longer need the working girl whose pocketbook is thin be doomed to a joyless existence in a dark, dimly lit cell, where heat is a thing unknown and light seldom enters in. Dainty, sunny rooms are now within the reach of all who come to the Elmire York-Tyndall, for the hotel is a masterpiece of convenience and comfort. Beauty, too, is not forgotten, for each and every room is an artist's gem. Spacious reading and living rooms are provided for the guests, while books, phones and other luxuries add to the attractiveness of the home.

Prices Within Reach.

What is the price of all this comfort? A mere pittance it is, for $2.50 will procure board as well as house for a week. For this small sum a girl can live in comparative luxury, with cleanliness, brightness and refinement on every side. A small, though well aired room, fitted up for two, with dainty pink walls and a large window, can be procured for this moderate price. Two small cots, which fold into each other, making a single couch, a large wardrobe, a chiffonier, a chair or two, as well as a large sized rug, complete the furnishings.

For those who are exclusive and seek solitude, bright single rooms have been provided. These are large and airy, delightfully done up in dainty greens and blues and should bring joy to the heart of any working girl. But the single rooms are more expensive, the charge, which includes two meals a day, breakfast and a three-course dinner, being $4 a week.

The social side of existence has not been forgotten in the management of the Elmire York-Tyndall. The masculine admirers of the working girl will find a remarkably large and attractive parlor especially designed for callers. Coaches, easy chairs, lamps and books all add an air of homelike comfort to the spacious apartment, and it is in this refined atmosphere that the feminine wage-earner will receive her guests. There is a second and smaller reception room.

Thirty Months of Work.

Two dining rooms in the basement are attractively furnished with mahogany tables and leather-upholstered chairs. Here, too, girls will eventually take their meals, and no prettier dining room will be found in any of the high priced boarding-houses.

The Rev. H. M. Tyndall, who is architect and builder of this hotel, is highly enthusiastic over the completion of his long cherished plans. For two and a half years the hotel has been in course of construction, its completion having been frequently delayed by lack of funds. Remarkable economy has been used, and to the careful calculation of the pastor is due its comparatively small cost. It is a six-story model apartment, with fifty-six sleeping rooms and twelve baths, besides the reading, living and dining rooms, and cost only $22,000.

Rev. Mr. Tyndall, when seen yesterday afternoon, was busy putting the finishing touches to his new hotel for self-supporting women.

"What are the rules of my hotel?" he asked, repeating a question. "They are few and very simple. The girls who live here will undoubtedly sympathize with me sufficiently to attend the services at the People's Tabernacle at least once or twice a week. This is, of course, not obligatory, but I think there is no doubt they will attend."

"Lights out at 11 o'clock. That's late enough, I think, for any girl to receive callers. And, talking about callers, I want to say there will be no restrictions in that line, for I don't want to discourage matrimony. Any evening the masculine admirers will be welcome, and I think we have amply provided for them," he said, glancing around the spacious reception room.

"The hotel was built with the intention of making a home for self-supporting women under thirty-five, and women of all religious beliefs will be admitted. The People's Tabernacle is interdenominational, and the same rule applies here. The prices are decidedly low. We do not wish to make any money by the venture, but we do want to make it pay its own expenses. We threw open the doors to the public yesterday. So far we have had but few applications. The place is not widely known, but I feel sure as soon as the working girls hear of this new hotel for their use they will come to us."

"What girl will not be satisfied here? It will be like one large family. My brother, Robert Tyndall, and his wife will live here, and have charge of the home. No other matron is necessary. Two meals a day we serve; in the morning, cereal, toast and coffee, and in the evening, soup, meat, vegetables and dessert. The prices range from $2.50 to $4, according to the room. I consider it an ideal home for the working girl, for we combine beauty, comfort and refinement.

ILLS OF OLD AGE Broken Health and Shattered Nerves Give Way to Strength and Vigor

Mrs. Sarah J. Windom, of Chicago, grandniece of Alexander Hamilton, who signed the Declaration of Independence, says: "VINOL is a godsend to old people. I am 76 years old, but have a hearty appetite, sleep soundly and feel active and well to day—thanks to VINOL. When I was young, cod liver oil was dispensed in a greasy, unpalatable form, and it fairly scared me to get it down. VINOL is entirely different, very palatable and nourishing to the impoverished blood. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used."

Mrs. H. W. Avery, Norwalk, N. Y., says: "At the age of 89 I felt the need of a tonic, something to strengthen and build me up. For a year I have taken VINOL, and have found that it brings vigor and life to the aged as nothing else will."

VINOL repairs worn tissues and checks the natural decline. It tones up the digestive organs, aids assimilation, makes rich, red blood, and strengthens every organ in the body. In this natural manner VINOL replaces weakness with strength.

VINOL is not a patent medicine, but a delicious cod liver preparation which contains all the medicinal body-building elements of cod liver oil in a concentrated form, taken from fresh cods' livers, the useless oil, eliminated and tonic iron added. That is why it quickly builds up strength for old people, delicate children, weak, run-down persons, and cures chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis. Your money returned if it fails to benefit.
